Getting together

in dodging scaffolds and shifting classrooms, 1300 Wildcats looked to the future by improving the present.

With contract letting Nov. 23, work crews installed new electrical, PA system; windows; concrete for carpeting.

Ground breaking March 22 marked start of new gym, fine arts wing, cafeteria extension, administrative wing, renovation -- a $4 million undertaking.

Construction, activities, academics, sports, organizations, people, advertisers - in all these realms, Cats took steps to get together.

Because of groundbreaking March 22, faculty had to abandon this north parking lot and use Carpenters Hall and former student lots to the south across Highland St.

First construction casualty came Oct. 8 when a delivery truck backed off blasted out, unguarded north driveway into the excavation for the proposed fine arts wing.

Worker installs solid, tinted glass for more efficient, planned air conditioning system.

After awaiting equipment and evicting gridders, athletic field got new lights in November.

Academics,

hub of HHS life, the one enterprise all HHSers had in common, incorporated fine arts, science, languages, practical arts, social studies, math, and business.

In classes

Cats fretted over grades, homework, tests, drills, labs, papers, practices. Seven periods a day; scholars scrambled to classes. Dealing in ideas, courses got Cats together.

English as a 2nd language, added to curriculum 2nd semester and taught by Miss Judy Pataki, brought 30 foreign-born high schoolers to HHS for pronunciation, reading, writing.

Metric balance scales compare the weights for senior chemist John Stagl's experiment.

Taking advantage of his back-of-the-room desk, Isaac Gonzalez succeeds in sneaking a snooze during a Geometry I lecture.

Sports

at the varsity level taught Wildcats the need for teamwork.

Skill, desire, unselfishness decided who could wear the purple and the white.

In football, cross country, tennis, basketball, swimming, wrestling, soccer, track, golf and baseball, sportsmen had to get together.

Highlighting basketball halftime, Dinah Mitchell poises herself before stepping into pompon girl routine to "Can't Get Next to You."

In a seesaw losing battle (65-63) against Clark, new varsity coach Mr. Dick Barr revamps offensive strategy.

Bunched in bus after upsetting league grid champ Morton, Larry Carter, Pete Chintis, Steve Beville and Mike Vrane celebrate team's effort.

Greening of spring lures Wildcats to Maywood Park for basketball, romance, merry-go-round, walks and conversation during lunch hours.

People

appearing in all shapes, sizes and colors; professing all creeds; varying in economic backgrounds; lent HHS an aura of dynamic diversity.

Hallmarked by individuality, adults and teens alike learned from each other to increase understanding and get together.

Activities

After a surprise dousing by Dorothy (Ruth Williams, r.) wicked witch Blinda (Colleen Conley, 2nd from l.) melts away as Blinky (Elizabeth Yusi), Slinky (Joni Smith), scarecrow (John Steele) watch in scene from play, "Oz."

During the homecoming pep session, princess candidates Karen Walker, Patti Sheets, Elizabeth Yusi, Denice Ivey, Kathy Chamberlain and Connie Brooks congratulate one another.

Grooving with the social scene, senior Hilda Bourgeois dances the Kold Duck at a soc hop.

Painting a Munchkinland prism for "Oz," Scott Ferree and Mitch Thomas query drama director Mr. Martin Stiglitz.

Activities

Activity calendar kept Wildcats on the go.

Starting with homecoming and ending with Association

Week, prom and graduation, social register enticed teens.

Dramatic repertoire swelled from tradition of 2 plays to 4, introducing hundreds of HHSers to designing, staging, costuming and acting both on stage and in the audience.

Raised curtain, crowned royalty, finished float, enthralled spectator--these activity ingredients furthered getting together.

Association sponsors week-long activities

Association staged week-long events in the spring and the fall.

"Reach Out" themed 1970 Association Week April 27-May 1. Agenda called for students symbolizing their future, cleaning the YMCA building site, teaching classes, wearing class colors, attending auditorium, tugging rope, playing 3-legged basketball. Cats fought air pollution by riding bicycles or paying a fine on community day.

Moved off their homefield, lightless because of incomplete electrical renovation, Wildcats staged their homecoming at Morton Oct. 16.

Homecoming activities included secret Wildcat day Oct. 12. Association named 2 students from each class as Wildcats. A free game ticket went to senior Frank Stuart for finding hidden football Oct. 13. In powder puff football Oct. 14, coin toss gave juniors a win over seniors after scoreless game. Cats had to wear purple on spirit day Oct. 15. If not, they had to pay a 25¢ fine.

Classes got dismissed after 5th period Oct. 16. Parade formed at 3 p.m. at the traditional starting point at Lyman Ave. and 165th St.

For the first time since 1962, juniors won the $15 first place award for their float "They'll Never Ketch-Up When We Pour it On." Senior float placed 2nd, sophomore 3rd and freshman 4th. Senior Gall Pearman had the best decorated car.

During game's halftime, president Don Creasbaum crowned Karen Walker queen. Seniors Denice Ivey, Connie Brooks; junior Kathy Chamberlain; sophomore Elizabeth Yusi; and freshman Patti Sheets reigned as princesses in Karen's court.

After the 22-21 loss to the Pioneers, Wilcats danced to the music of The Kritters in Morton gym.

Enthroned on their float, "Track 'Em Down," senior princess Connie Brooks, Denice Ivey and queen Karen Walker ride in homecoming parade.

of floats, rope tug, games

First place homecoming float, entrones the junior princess, Kathy Chamberlain.

Sophomore boys pit their brawn against freshmen in spring '70 Association Week rope pull.

Out of step with his partner, Louisa Hurt, Dick Kitchell shoots for 2 points in a 1970 Association Week activity, 3-legged cage contest between juniors and seniors.

"Reach out for your community" during 1970 Association Week prompts David Bailey and Bill Bonham to prevent air pollution by riding their bicycles to school.

'Winnie the Pooh' opens children's theater troupe

Under the direction of new dramatics adviser Mr. Marty Stiglitz, student actors presented "Winnie the Pooh" Oct. 31 in the cafeteria.

Establishing Wilcat Kiddie Theater with "Pooh," thespians hoped to book additional performances.

Forest setting consisted of a rabbit hole made out of plywood, wooden doors and trees, and a muslin stream. Chicken wire, muslin and wood provided materials for tree stumps and the owl's house.

Linda Meggers played Pooh; Bob Silverman, Christopher Robin; Mike Kozlowski, father; Mike Burrows, Eeyore, the donkey; Mitch Thomas, Piglet; Micheline Harris, Kanga; Tina Perez, Roo; John VanNatta, Rabbit; and Diana Shoup, the owl.

"Tut, tut, looks like rain," say Pooh (Linda Meggers) and Christopher Robin (Bobby Silverman) in a tactic aimed at diverting a swarm of bees' attention from a cache of honey.

Spooning tonic, Kanga (Micheline Harris) pretends not to notice Piglet's (Mitch Thomas) impersonation of kidnapped Roo.

Forest residents Eeyore (Mike Burrows), Pooh, Owl (Diana Shoup) Christopher Robin, Rabbit (John VanNatta), Kanga and Piglet rally with the North Pole to rescue Roo (Tina Perez), whose off-base leap landed in the stream.

Actors produce 'Meet Me in St. Louis'

Listening to the conductor (Bob Bainer); Agnes Smith (Cathy Pratt), Mrs. Waughap (Pat Scott), Mrs. Smith (Jo Oexmann) and Rose Smith (Debbie Harris) hear how Tootie Smith (Diane Quint) threw her homemade dummy in front of a trolley car, causing it to derail.

Thespians presented comedy "Meet Me in St. Louis," directed by Mr. Marty Stiglitz, Nov. 20-21.

Play involved the antics of 4 daughters in a family in St. Louis, the site of a World fair, in 1904.

Donated or rummage sale furniture, bookcase made from old math book covers, chandelier made from an old table bottom, sponge painted walls furnished the setting.

Pinning the ruffles on her 1904 Gibson girl blouse, actress Debbie Harris completes the costume for her portrayal of Rose Smith.

Digging into a 5-lb. box of candy, Grandpa (Dennis Waugh) and Agnes Smith (Cathy Pratt) mutilate coatings to get tastier fillings.

Escaping the approaching twister, Uncle Henry (Dave Whitelaw tugs Aunt Em (Joni Sullivan) toward an underground shelter.

Endowing poppies with sleep power, wicked witches Judy Jakush, Elizabeth Yusi, Colleen Conley, Joni Smith hope to lure Dorothy to the castle to steal her magic ruby slippers.

Thespians present 'The Wizard of Oz'

After nearly 3 months' work, thespians presented "The Wizard of Oz" Feb. 20 in the theater.

This children's musical told the story of a girl's imaginary trip to Oz—a land inhabited by flying monkeys, Munchkins, witches, a wizard.

Ruth Williams acted as Dorothy; John McFadden, tin woodman; Bob Silverman, lion; John Steele, scarecrow; Joni Sullivan, Aunt Em; David Whitelaw, Uncle Henry.

Other actors included Mary Ellen Gunia as Toto; Diana Shoup, Glinda; Colleen Conley, Blinda; Bruce Cegur, mayor; John Van Natta, wizard; Joni Smith, Slinky.

Dave Foster appeared as Joe; Judy Jakush, Inky; Elizabeth Yusi, Blinky; Mark Dongu, Lord Growlie; Kristin Millies, Topaz; Sue Bonham, Amber; Mitch Thomas, Jade.

Cast also included Shelley Steinmetz and Patty Fielder, the Lollipop Kids; Bob Gates, the coroner; 14 Munchkins; 10 Oz people; 6 win-kies; 4 trees; 2 flying monkeys.

Cyndi Kowalski, Oz people coach; Jo Oexmann, principal vocal coach; Laura Avery, Munchkin coach; Mike Kozlowski, publicity, special effects; Mark Dongu, tickets; assisted Mr. Marty Stiglitz, director.

Kozlowski handled the tape-recorded sound effects of a rooster, cuckoo, cyclone and flapping wings.

Actors made and painted all staging items. They produced 6 different 12-ft. prisms on wheels for scene shifts. Four sets of background scenery comprised the set.

Colleen Conley, Carole Webster, Diane Quint and Diana Shoup made most of the costumes.

Other actors made their costumes from donated and scrap materials.

Joy reigns in Munchkinland as Dorothy (Ruth Williams) and Toto (Mary Ellen Gunia) hear praise of Munchkin (Beth Ginther), mayor (Bruce Cegur), Glinda (Diana Shoup) for bad witches death.

"You must be tired, my pretty," says Blinda (Colleen Conley) to Dorothy (Ruth Williams) as scarecrow (John Steele), lion (Bob Silverman) and tin woodman (John McFadden) cower in background.

With Bea (Bev Brauer) in the background, Sylvia Barrett (Denise Ivey) criticizes Paul Barringer's (John Perkins) handling of love note.

Go-go dancing by student (Diane Quint) and mopping by janitor (John McFadden) open play.

Harping on nutrition matters, Frances Egan (Diana Shoup) interjects her opinion.

Seniors sponsor 'Up the Down Staircase'

Thespians presented the senior-sponsored play, "Up the Down Staircase," April 2-3 in the theater.

Play involved a new teacher facing the experiences of an indifferent, sometimes hostile classroom in a New York inner-city school.

Denice Ivey acted as Sylvia Barrett; John Perkins, Paul Barringer; Bev Brauer, Bea Schachter; Mike Burrows, Maxwell Clarke; Louisa Hurt, Charlotte Wolfe; Pete Chinttis, McHabe; Jo Oexmann, Ellen.

Other actors were Laura Avery as Sadie Finch; Diana Shoup, Frances Egan; Bruce Cegur, Samuel Bester; Micheline Harris, Ella Friedenberg; John McFadden, janitor.

Joni Smith, Myron Young, Victor Parrish, John Steele, Diane Quint, Marc Stern, Ramiro Caudillo, Mark Norden, Cathy Pratt, Dave Foster, Tina Perez appeared as students.

Joni Sullivan, Mitch Thomas, Annette Nance, Billy Cox, Gloria Lozano, Claudia Dutro, Walt Okichich, Roseanne Frechette were pupils.

Robin Phillips, Mark Dongu, Wayne Price portrayed other characters.

Senior sponsors Mr. Robert Urlick and Mrs. Anna Urlick handled ushers, programs, tickets, Mike Kozlowski aided publicity and lighting.

Set design consisted of several raised platforms where faculty, students and other characters sat.

Director Mr. Marty Stiglitz planned platform positions, construction. Bruce Cegur created platforms' Peter Max painting style and graffiti. Cast and stage crew painted the set.

Play opened on an electric circus note with dancing, strobe lights.

Collared by J. J. McHabe (Pete Chintis), Joe Ferone (Ramiro Caudillo) pays for crime of being escortless during exam.

'A Time for Us' themes 1970 junior-senior prom

Romeo and Juliet's movie theme song title, "A Time For Us," set the pace for the 1970 junior-senior prom at Scherwood Club May 15.

Johnny Nolan's orchestra provided prom music from 8-11 p.m. The November Guest entertained promsters at post-prom from 11:30 p.m. to 2:30 a.m. at Scherwood Club.

Headed by chairman Connie Brooks, decorating committee carried out the theme in pink and green and used a balcony, fountain, trellises to complete scenery.

After a dance during post prom, Mike Stojkovich and Angel Miofsky discuss their picnic plans for the next day.

Following directions, Linda Elliott, Don Johnsen, Linda Ahlgren, Don Creasbaum, Monica Leeney, Bob Wiley, Debbie Terry lead grand march.

HHS gains grads from ceremonies

Commencement '70 climaxed activities June 4 at the Civic Center. The Rev. Calvin Phillips gave the invocation; valedictorian LeeAnne Myers, address; the Rev. A. R. Burns, benediction.

The Rev. John Parrish delivered the baccalaureate sermon May 31.

Protesting exclusion of May 18 ditch day participants from honors day, some seniors wore arm bands during honors program May 20.

Age of Aquarius themed senior -faculty banquet at Tiebel's June 1.

Arranged in Civic Center basement prior to processional, Karen Kicho and John Parrish pass time by scanning commencement roster.

Grads file for diplomas from Mr. Ralph Potesta of school board.

Universities host pupils for summer

Gearing toward responsibilities, 21 activityists attended summer workshops at Indiana universities.

Association officers-to-be concentrated on student government at Indiana U. leadership institute.

Along with learning cheers and stunts, varsity cheerleaders placed 3rd and 4th in daily competition at National Cheerleaders Assn. camp at Vincennes U. July 12-17.

Ball State U. hosted 3 orators, 5 Herald and 6 Dunes staffers for 2-week debate, newspaper and year-book workshops in July and August.

Indiana U. leadership institute—Bev. Brauer, John House.

Cheerleader camp—Nancy May, Barb DeBoe, Debbie Terry, Sue Vellner, Mrs. Sally Woodrick, sponsor; Linda Wasylosky.

Ball State U. debate institute—Kurt Huebner, Sheila Husted, Dave Seddelmeyer.

Ball State U. newspaper institute—Kevin Speaks, Sheila Manzo, Diana Shoup, Christine Leonakis, Joni Sullivan.

Ball State U. yearbook institute—Patti Hall, Karen Mauder, Mary Leas, Malcolm Springs, Nicki Solan, Sue Weaver, Diane Walker, Sandy Bieber.

Communicating yule spirit, artists Mike Scoggins, Steve Scott, Choi Wong and Sandi Costley embellish city bus.

Academics

Quizzing one another for vocabulary tests, cross-checking geometric proofs, memorizing French tenses, mixing chemicals, dissecting frogs, whipping up cake, trampolining, debating war, timing typing, designing collages, counting headlines, tuning for concerts--such goings-on typified classroom endeavors.

In school, at the library, over the phone, Wildcats tested ideas and stretched their minds. Students all, they learned to get together in academics.

Recognition honors feats of scholars

Wildcats attained honors for academic and activity achievements.

Indiana U. foreign language honors program in April chose juniors Eileene Mulligan to travel to France for the summer, Kristin Millies and Dan Gostylo to Germany.

Seniors rated distinction as outstanding in departments: Diane Hammond, band; Sheila Manzo, journalism; Ted DuPont, science.

National Merit Scholarship Corp. honored 7 seniors. Bobbi Kanabay qualified as a finalist in the scholarship competition. The other 6 received letters of commendation.

Bob Eckstein, 1970 grad, merited the H Men blanket award as the most valuable athlete for 1969-70.

Senior scholastic leaders—Debbie Terry, valedictorian; Nancy Conway, salutatorian.

Outstanding departmental seniors—Sheila Manzo, journalism; Ted DuPont, science (Bausch & Lomb award); Diane Hammond, band (Arion award).

479 Cats elect study in summer

Because of renovation at HHS, 479 Wildcats took summer classes at Tech and Gavit June 10-Aug. 5. Workers were bricking in windows for air conditioning and pouring cement on the floors for carpeting.

With 10 cars, 213 driver ed students tackled on-the-road skills.

Boys wanting to know enough about cars to work in a service station took a new course, auto service.

Students received grades July 10, Aug. 5. They took finals Aug. 4.

Twelve HHS teachers taught classes at Tech. Two taught at Clark.

Driver education instruction shifts from behind the wheel to under the hood for teacher Mr. Bill Strater and his students Lee Ann Haizlip, Christine Maddy and Theodore DuPont.

Soap and water cut through windshield grime as trainees Rosie Mik-lusak and June Bukowski get on the road to total car care.

Taking typing at Tech, beginner Kathy Pietrzak erases an error.

Nurse, counselors, librarians aid pupils

Seeking college information, senior Rob Barrell gets aid from counselor Mr. Fred Monberg.

After receiving a box of new books, head librarian Mr. Jerry Janco assigns catalog cards.

Supplementing classroom ideas, students and teachers sought and received help from the library, guidance office and nurse's office.

As part of the health program, nurse Mrs. Shirley Huls administered TB tests to new students in October, teachers in December, seniors and cafeteria help in March.

Library supplied students, teachers with about 8000 volumes, 6 newspapers and 700 magazines.

Counselors planned programs, gave tests, registered frosh, advised counselees in extended homerooms.

During sophomore screening tests, Mrs. Alice Hjerquist checks Dennis Waugh's ears.

Writing, listening, reading comprise English studies

Through 8 required classes and 2 electives, English students imbibed doses of reading, writing, listening, speaking, researching.

Freshmen adhered to the fundamentals of grammar and literature.

Sophs switched from speech concentration first semester to literature and writing 2nd. Classes kept journals, explicated poetry.

In place of English 4, sophs could elect speech or journalism. Journalists heard Miss Sherry Fyfe of the Times discuss reporting.

American lit for juniors, English lit for seniors, and 2 semesters of comp—replete with term papers—completed studies of English.

Cropping play pix, journalists Dave Seddelmeyer and Betty Grabill employ proportion wheel and pica ruler to find original width.

Given the Comp 5 assignment of identifying subordinate clauses, Sherrie Williams writes the adverb clause in the exercise's #7.

As part of freshman English study of ballads, Diane Bruhn plays Glen Campbell's version of "Gentle on My Mind" for a sing-along.

Delivering speech about the organization of professional baseball, sophomore Rick Pietrzak captivates attention of English 3 class.

Herald, Dunes cop All American ratings

National Scholastic Press Assn. gave its highest rating, All American, to Herald and Dunes in '70.

In earning its rating, Herald merited all 5 marks of distinction for both spring and fall semesters. Newspaper also rated first class from Quill & Scroll for 1969-70.

Dunes for '70 had yearbooking's triple crown with A+ from National School Yearbook Assn. and Medalist from Columbia Scholastic Press Assn., in addition to the All American from NSPA.

Both publications sent staffers to Ball State U. journalism workshop in summer. Herald had 5 delegates; Dunes 8, tying HHS for distinction as the largest yearbook delegation to the BSU workshop.

To boost sales, yearbooks had an auditorium session in October. Five skits illustrated staff jobs and Dunes' value in the year 2035.

With only one senior, editor Sheila Manzo, Herald staff explored venereal disease, fair housing, drop-outs, clubs, independent research and Vice President Spiro Agnew's November visit to Hammond.

Classes hear candidate speeches;

Offering of contemporary history and hearing of congressional candidates highlighted social studies.

Contemporary history courses engaged students in simulation games, "War or Peace?" to learn about formulation of foreign policy. Then turning to the real world, the class followed the Middle East crisis, involving Israel and Arab nations.

Democratic Rep. Ray Madden and Republican Mr. Gene Kirkland, candidates for Indiana's first congressional district, talked to government, history classes Oct. 26 and 28.

Government classes toured the Hammond city hall first semester.

Department acquired film strips about ecology and world history.

Movie in first semester government class uses 2 girls' do-it-yourself moving methods to illustrate the problem of city housing.

Studying the role of 15th century explorers in world history, Jeff Clark examines a model of Christopher Columbus' ship, the Santa Maria.

take contemporary history

Visiting government and history classes before the Nov. 3 election, congressional incumbent Ray Madden explains his political platform.

Compiling material for their oral reports about India, World History 2 students Debbie Phipps, Margaret Mazerik and Terrill Cheathaf consult magazine articles for information.

Visitors tell scientists of chem, perils

Speakers visiting science classes discussed subjects ranging from cigarette smoking to alcoholism.

Mr. Verlyn Mack, former chief of the Hammond Fire Dept., talked about cancerous effects of smoking.

Lecturing about results of alcohol, a representative of the state alcohol narcotics education board visited health and safety classes.

Professor Allen Carlson of Purdue Calumet Campus described university courses offering chemistry.

Also from PUCC, future teachers Dan Kritsch and Dilon Crittendon observed health and safety classes for 2 days and taught the 3rd.

For the first time, department added a Biology 4 class to students wishing to know more about botany.

Representing science department of Purdue Cal Campus, Prof. Allen Carlson describes university courses for Chemistry 1 class.

After scraping off the fat of a fetal pig, sophomores Carl Malm and Johnny White examine its muscle tissue during Biology 3.

Gauging water temperature, Mr. Lawrence Lundgren and David Malacina conduct heat transfer experiment during physics class.

Enhancing his biology knowledge, freshman Rodney Jones studies bacteria and fungi slides through micro-viewer.

Calculating the angular and linear measurements of an arc, sophomore gauger Cayle Edmond deliberates over an equation in geometry class.

Study of graphs prompts inquiries between senior Bill Hutton and math department chairman Mr. Wayne Pecher in the analysis class.

Math pupils proliferate, add teacher

Because of increased enrollment, math staff expanded from 7 teachers in '70 to 8 teachers in '71.

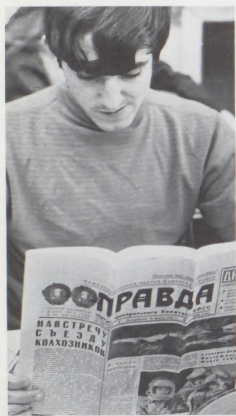

Of the 879 students enrolled in the math department, 149 registered for the National High School Mathematics examination March 9. Dan Gostylo, Bill Simmons, Mike Kozowski turned in top 3 scores.

Department offered 4 tracks of math, including 2—UICSM and college prep—for college bound students. Mathematicians on general or business courses could follow basic or general math programs.

Connecting points on the line, freshman Sid Pachter graphs to find solution to equation  $Y = -2X + 5$  in Algebra 1 class.

Sporting a Mexican sombrero, Milo Polovina and Mrs. Anna Urlick add an authentic touch to a routine Spanish dialogue.

Browsing through Paris Match magazines, French 8 students Theresa Hendrix and Eileen Mulligan check on current events.

Linguists study in united classes, vie in IU exam

Language department united classes, raised funds, vied in the IU foreign language honors program.

Students sold refreshments at Kiwanis travelogs at Gavit to raise money for Indiana honors program.

Competing to go overseas in the IU program, 14 linguists passed a listening-comprehension test Dec. 5. Program interviewed 4 German and 3 French semi-finalists March 8.

Combined 3rd and 4th year classes in French, German and Spanish enabled linguists to continue studies.

Lack of participation forced Latin 2 and 4 classes to combine.

Passing time between lab sessions, Gloria Lozano memorizes French verb conjugations.

Hoping to accelerate speed in shorthand, senior LaVerne Stevenson sets up a tape.

Keeping books for an assignment in clerical practice, Esperanza Mellado totals a column of numbers on the adding machine.

Adjusting earphones for their 90 wpm take, seniors Lana Venzke and Kathy Schmal prepare for 5-minute timing in Stenography 4.

of business offers 2 new courses

Business department offered 2 new courses, founded a club and hired 2 teachers to bring the staff up to 6 full-time instructors instead of 5 full and one part-time.

One new course, shorthand, did double duty by supplying college bound students with a note-taking method and introducing potential shorthanders to simplified system.

For the first time in several years, businesssers could enroll in Clerical Practice 2 the 2nd semester. Students helped to plan areas of study and tests for advanced training in the use of office machines.

Formed in March, new Typing Club attracted about 40 students. It offered them the chance to type papers or practice on their own.

Novice typist Jan Stutsman exemplifies a hunt-and-peck method before switching in- to the standard touch typing technique.

Home ec'ers run trials of need in diet

Guest speaker and an experiment in nutritional needs headed the home ec department's curriculum.

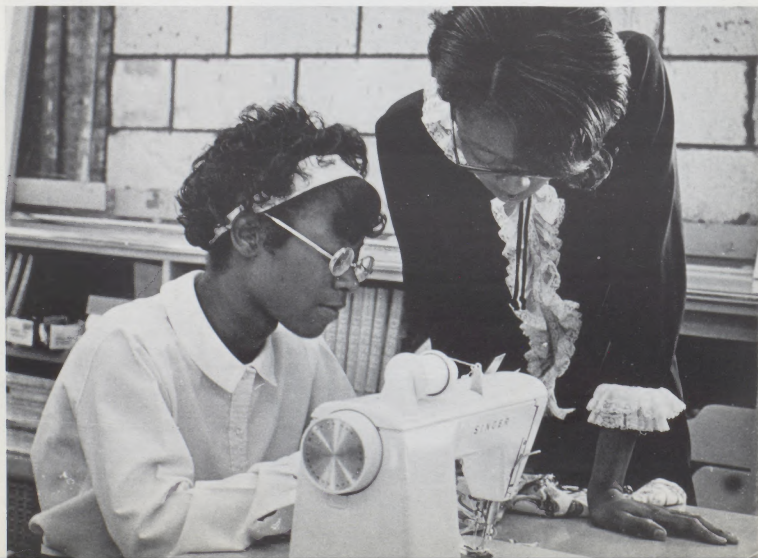

With the goal of improving physical conditions, 75 cooks undertook a nutrition experiment first semester. They discovered faults, such as weight, complexion, nails, that they wanted to amend. After determining corrective diets, they reported their progress in January.

Miss Donna Hillbreth, a model from Venus College, spoke to Miss Georgia Thie's clothing classes March 25. Miss Hillbreth discussed grooming and demonstrated the techniques of makeup application.

Before machine basting her cotton dress for spring, Debbie Chorbah proceeds to apply the inner facings during her clothing class.

Assembling a paisley cotton spring dress, Linda Parrish and Brenda Parrish adjust the machine's stitch length for basting in side seam.

Following through on the principle of cleaning's coming after cooking, Foods Ister Anita Cheek restows a bowl for her kitchen.

Cooperating in their cookery, Anita Cheek, Julie Harris and Sandy Mudrovich assemble the implements for baking cake in Foods I.

Places vary for meetings of phys ed

Sounds of physical education activities echoed in Civic Center, athletic field, pools, girls gym.

Boys trekked daily to Civic Center for gym classes. There they engaged in such activities as calisthenics, isometrics, handball and circuit runs.

Girls folk danced and played volleyball, softball, basketball and field hockey. They used balance beam, horse and trampoline in their study of gymnastic skills.

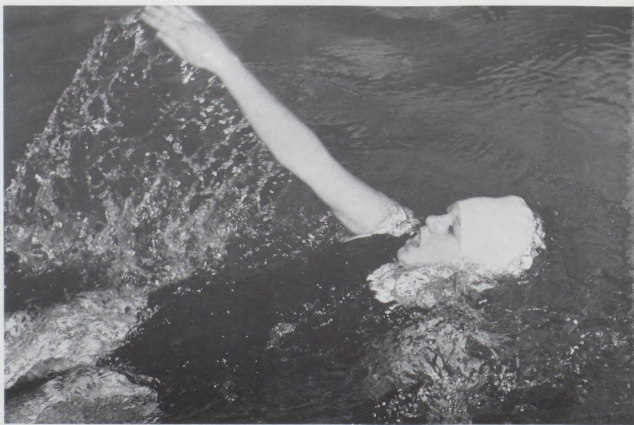

In good weather, classes met on the athletic field west of school.

Boys and girls swimming classes based instruction on Red Cross methods. Beginners concentrated on strokes, then glided into dives.

More advanced Catfish studied lifesaving and survival techniques.

With a lended hand from a classmate, freshman Sherry Robinson straddle-vaults the horse.

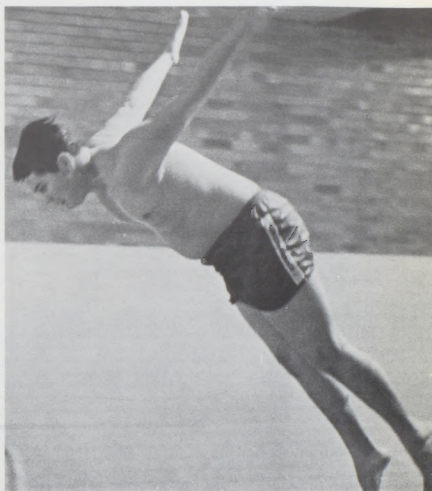

Assisting a physical education teacher, junior Linda Wood demonstrates the turn of the hand for the backstroke.

Poised on the beam, Sheila Crutcher launches into a swan balance.

Diverse effects derive when sophomore Mike Ciastko bombs a drill in swimming, a one-semester phys ed requirement for graduation.

200 artists adorn halls, paint buses

Offering 7 classes, the art department attracted 200 students.

Beginning art students designed anti-pollution posters during their study of line movement and texture.

"Old Fashioned Christmas" themed yuletide decorations. They featured showcase display of batiks and 8 traditional scene paintings. Painters redecorated 2 Shore Line buses for the Christmas season.

Advanced art students made an intensive study of egg tempera, a pre-Renaissance method of painting. They explored lettering and created projects about the city.

Spreading yule cheer throughout the Calumet Region, Bruce Cegur and Janet Grekoff adorn Shore Line buses with holiday decorations.

Scraps provide raw materials for Sandi Costley's collaged creation of a horse in Art 4.

During the study of line movement in Art 1, junior Candy Metrick and senior Debra Stevens pattern abstract paper mosaics.

Born July 7 under the sign of Cancer, John McFadden etches its crab symbol into a glass paperweight, an undertaking in arts projects class.

Later to place 5th in the mile relay in the frosh city meet, Melvin Pennington lunges from the starting block.

Sports

Though 10 varsity sports amassed a 75-59-2 record from spring '70 to winter '71, in the process HHS garnered city crowns in cross country and tennis; and conference titles in cross country, tennis, track. Gridders, matmen rated league 2nds.

Under a new coach basketball bettered last year's record.

In sectionals golf ranked 5th, swimming 6th. Baseball played its longest schedule to 7-14.

Spurred by cheerleaders, fans got together in sports.

H Men give hop, game; peddle pins

Sponsoring a dance, basketball game and bake sale; redesigning jackets; and selling sectional pins comprised H Men's schedule.

To gain HHS membership in the state basketball hall of fame, H Men sponsored a game previewing '71-72 basketball team March 5.

Clearlight provided entertainment for the lettermen soc hop Feb. 13.

Boosting spirit among cage fans, H Men sold Cats pins for sectional.

They ushered free at home basketball games, gave a winter bake sale and the spring sports banquet.

With the aim of greater strength for next year, football letterman Bill Sheets military presses 80 lbs. with the weightlifting apparatus in the basement of the Civic Center.

H Men officers—Russ Smith, secretary; Mike Vrane, vice president; Bob Lukowski, president; Mr. Jules Papis, sponsor.

Varsity cheerleaders — FROM BOTTOM: Susan Vellner, Linda Wasylowsky, captain; Nancy May, Willie; Barb DeBoe, Debbie Terry.

Roaring her support, mascot Gabrielle Burdock joins cheering captain Linda Wasylowsky as Pioneers top Cat cagers 65-63.

Spirit-lifters raise funds, stitch outfits

Cheerleaders ran football concession stands, sold buttons and sponsored bake sales to help pay for summer camp and new uniforms.

After gaining berths as varsity cheerleaders during spring of '70, squad attended the National Cheerleaders Assn. summer camp at Vincennes U. July 2-17. There they placed 3rd and 4th in competition.

Under sponsorship of Mrs. Sally Woodrick, varsity bought letters and long and short sleeved sweat-ers. They made jumpsuits while B team sewed purple V-neck vests.

B team cheerleaders—Pam Ripple, Debbie Thompson, Jan Cooper, Willie; Claudia Dutro, JoAnne Lippman.

Homeless gridders notch 7-3 slate, 2nd in league

Playing their home games at Mor-ton, Clark and Gavit because of lack of lights at HHS field, varsity foot-ball team finished 2nd in the con-ference with a 7-3 record.

For their pre-season opener at football-o-rama Aug. 27, Wild-cats garnered a victory against Gavit 7-0, after a tie against Tech 0-0.

Throughout the season, Wildcats scored 225 points while they al-lowed the opposing teams 96 pts.

Team allowed 1823 yds. rushing while rushing for 1823 yds. them-selves. Seniors Rob Lukowski and Terry Eitel led the team with 780 and 566 yds. rushing, respectively.

Junior quarterback, John Visnyak attempted 83 passes and completed 33 passes for 488 yds. and 7 TD's.

Lukowski with 11 catches for 152 yds. and Eitel with 7 catches for 66 yds. excelled in receiving.

Eitel with 72 pts., 3rd in the Calumet Region; Lukowski with 60 and Joe Kaminski 33, led scoring.

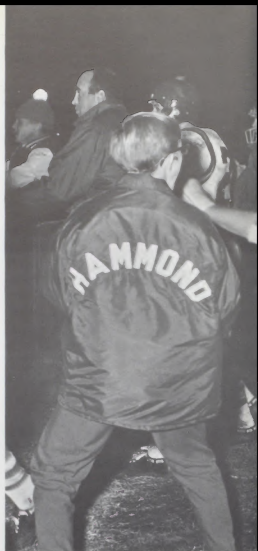

Pre-season injuries excluded jun-iors Cabe Davies, broken arm, and Bill Thiede, broken leg. Junior Dave Chumbley suffered a cracked verte-bra during the Clark contest.

Varsity coaches named Eitel and Lukowski most valuable backs and junior Lynn Mamula most valuable lineman. Junior Bill Sheets received the most improved player award. Players voted to name Eitel Hono-rary captain of the team.

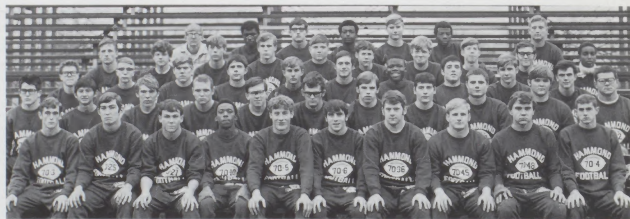

The Times cited Mamula, Chum-bley and Eitel to its all-conference team. Seniors Lukowski and Garry Misner, and junior Darrell Wood-worth gained honorable mention.

Eitel acquired a position on The Times' all-region football roster.

UPI coaches poll named Lukow-ski to the all-state team. Eitel and Mamula gained honorable mention.

Anticipating upset of league champs, Cat coaches and players surge onto Gov field.

Cagers chalk 8-13 slate under new varsity coach

In his first year at the helm, Coach Dick Barr led varsity cagers to 8-13, to better their '70 slate.

Wildcats competed with 5 squads ranked in the top 20 of Indiana. Teams included Lafayette Jefferson, Valparaiso, Michigan City, EC Roosevelt and EC Washington.

Freshmen Larry Moore and Randy Harrison joined the varsity team as starters throughout the season.

Lake Central beat HHS 77-64 in the East Chicago holiday meet opener Dec. 22. Cagers then beat Panthers 64-59 Dec. 23 to place 3rd.

In sectionals, Cats lost 62-57 to Highland, a squad they had beaten by 2 during regular season play. Junior John Jelks tallied 19 points to lead Wildcats' tourney scoring.

Senior Rob Barrell with 308 pts.; Moore, 294; and senior Don Simerly, 198; topped Cats in season scoring.

At the free throw line freshman Randy Harrison, .785; and Barrell, .673; led with best percentages.

Dribblers with best field goal percentages included Simerly, .524; and senior Cornelius Young, .469.

Simerly and senior Mike Drutis led the Wildcats in rebounding by grabbing 152 and 88, respectively.

During the 89-63 loss to Valparaiso, senior Terry Eitel questions a referee's call.

Fast breaking, Conny Young races downcourt in win over Munster.

improves to 9-10; yearlings tally for 8-11

Bandaging a weak ankle, B team coach Mr. Paul Bingaman reinforces Bob Bass's foot.

Dribbling down court, B teamer Dave Brooks races Gavit opponent in field goal attack.

After going through 19-game regular seasons, B and freshman basketball squads met varsity seniors in a "has-benz-will bez" game at Civic Center March 5. Contest ended in an overtime win for the grads.

B team surpassed last year's 5-14 slate with a 9-10 record this year. Playing more games than before, freshmen came up with 8 wins, as many as last year; but 11 losses, 2 more than they had in '70.

Sophomore Rob Hester led B team in scoring while classmate John Sheeks grabbed the most rebounds. Coach Paul Bingaman said squad had Cats' best sophs in 7 or 8 years.

In season, B team suffered a 51-50 overtime loss to Morton and a 50-14 Griffith pasting. Boys rebounded to whip Whiting 78-46.

With varsity employing 2 freshman regulars, yearlings looked to Duane McClendon's 12.6 average and George Williams' 10.7 average, to top their team's point tallies.

HHS took 4th in city frosh tourney at Spohn Jan. 27-29 by beating Morton, taking one-pt. loss from Clark, losing consolation to Noll.

Clubs

Meeting on an average of once a month, clubs nonetheless had time to pursue hobbies, explore careers, expand class learnings. 1970-71 saw demise of Folk 15, Stamp Club, Bowling Club, and Future Teachers; but start of Interested Students Establishment, Hockey Club, Skindiving Club, Typing Club, United Students Assn. and dance troupe.

Through bake sales, auditoriums, trips, elections, debates, soc hops and fests, HHS community got together in organizations.

Association sparks year with sales, soc hops, fest

Soc hops, popcorn sales, Little Calumet clean up, committees, folk fest, Christmas float and breakfast filled Association calendar.

Soc hops featured Kritters homecoming Oct. 16, and ORE Jan 29.

Lunch and after school popcorn sales swelled Association treasury.

Government recruited clean-upers for Jaycees' Little Calumet

River ecology project April 24; appointed dress, rules and regulations and multi-ethnic committees.

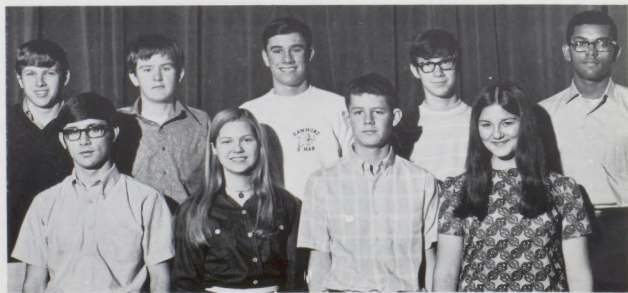

Folk fest March 19 featured announcement of new officers.

"Winter Wonderland" Christmas float placed 2nd in city parade.

Association served breakfast in the cafeteria as a trial in April, but stopped because of lack of interest.

Stage spotlights club, crew, dance troupe

Theater world captured the fancies of 3 organizations—Dramatics
Club, stage crew and dance troupe —in a year marked by a doubling in the number of stage productions.
Dramatics clubbers served as cast members, makeup committeemen and production staffers for theater.

Dance and dues helped to pay for a May 8 trip to Chicago to see the musical, "Promises, Promises."

Construction of scenery and costumes, sound control and lighting comprised responsibilities of stage crews during and after school.
Plays' actors augmented the crew.

Mr. Marty Stiglitz, new dramatics director, organized dance troupe with hopes of including choreography in the theatrical productions.

Mrs. Carol Farris of Indiana U.
Northwest dance theater assisted
Mr. Stiglitz with the dance troupe.

Dancers had planned to appear in Art Week auditorium May 7 but decided not to for lack of time.

Pursuing their interests in the arts, Wildcats could register for Music Club or Expanded Arts Club.

In its 2nd year, Music Club met during club periods to hear live and recorded musical styles ranging from hard rock to classical.

Meeting after school, Expanded Arts organized trips and programs. During Art Week, May 3-7, the art club exhibited student and faculty art works. Week also featured an auditorium session which illustrated op and pop art styles.

Expanded Artists heard Mr. Hal Hester, HHS grad of Hester Studio, talk about commercial art March 24; visited Hammond's northern Indiana are center March 23.

Olga Schubkegel memorial award winner, announced senior honors day, received a $200 scholarship. Jean Potter won the award in 1970.

Art club collected dues of 50¢ and 75¢ to help pay for activities.

Expanded Arts Club member Jan Grekoff joins fellow artists in adorning a Shore Line bus with yule symbols.

Expediting school services, volunteer students earned .5 credit in offices, halls and the library.

Office aides assisted clerks by checking absentee lists, answering phone, please-sending, erranding.

Counselors received student aid in record keeping, survey taking.

Bookstore workers sold supplies; and took deposits, incoming calls.

On hall duty, monitors checked admits and lockers, hand out court notices and green slips.

Most library aides belong to Library Club. They filled periodical requests, sent overdue slips.

Scholarship, films attract career girls

Thirty-six career-minded girls joined Health Careers, Babysitters clubs or Future Secretaries Assn.

Future Secretaries met at night every other week. Trying to earn a $300 scholarship, club members wrote essays about why they wanted to enter the field of business.

Sponsor Mrs. Shirley Huls showed movie, "What You Should Know About Cancer," to Health Career members March 10. She spoke about venereal disease March 24.

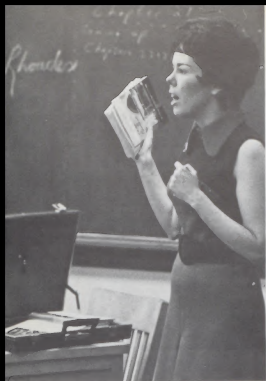

Following guidelines set by the Red Cross, Babysitters Club meetings centered on snacks, recreation, safety precautions and discipline for tots, grade schoolers.

GAA fields teams; skaters, divers unite

Formation of 2 new sports clubs attracted swimmers and skaters; while GAA competed in volleyball, basketball, and track and field.

Skindivers Club met in club periods. Boys used their own equipment to practice ditch and recovery methods and lifesaving techniques.

Hockey Club met for the first time in December. Boys compiled a 5-4 record in their first season.

Club planned to join the Munster hockey league for the '71-72 season. They organized an intramural floor hockey league in the spring.

GAA'ers sponsored bake sales and sold football jerseys with class numerals on them to pay for the officials needed to referee the home volleyball and basketball games.

GAA cagers compiled an 8-2 slate, losing the 2 games to Portage and Gary Wirt. Sophomore Crystal Burns averaged 10 points a game; senior Paula Jarnecke, 8 points a game.

Girls had pizza-splash parties throughout the year at HHS pool.

GAA 1970 track team finished 4th in the district track meet May 4. Roxann Lahey won first in shot put. Paula Jarnecke, Crystal Burns, Mary Butler, Ira Peterson of 100-yd. relay team ran first in state.

Outfitted with Nemrod scuba gear during a meeting of the new Skindiving Club, junior Greg Huebner surfaces at poolside from a deep dive.

Top Kat undertakes fund raising project

Top Kat collected dues; sponsored the annual Ugly Man contest, soc hops to raise money for buses to away football and basketball games.

Science teacher Mr. Charles Sizemore won the title of Ugly Man. Club named winner during half-time of the Highland game Feb. 13. Math teacher Mr. Eugene Baron placed 2nd. Club earned $24.41.

Club sponsored 2 soc hops featuring ORE Feb. 13 and April 8.

Dues system allowed payment of dues by year or semester. Dues also allowed members to ride buses at a lower cost than non-members.

Top Kat officials—Sue Michaw, treasurer; Beth Webb, president; Mr. Frank Carroll, co-sponsor; Mr. Robert Urick, co-sponsor.

Adult groups give dance, banquets, basketball game

Adult clubs—Booster, PTA, Band Parents—supplemented activities.

Boosters sponsored faculty vs. Chicago Cubs basketball game Dec. 16. Club hosted fall, winter sports banquets. Members saw football, basketball game films at meetings.

Because of lack of participation,

PTA discussed disbanding the group, but decided not to. Instead of an activity, PTA took donations for scholarship and post-prom funds.

Band Parents supported band projects by handing out uniforms, chaperoning trips and sponsoring a soc hop after Whiting game Jan. 22.

After Whiting cage game, Terry White and his band play for the Band Parent soc hop.

Planning the April 23 concert, band parents Mrs. Maxine Hensley and Mrs. U. Richard Knudsen receive from Mr. Ralph Potesta a check for program advertisements sold by musicians.

Watching Adult Booster Club-sponsored Cub-faculty basketball game, benched teachers, coached by Mr. Bob King, see their team lose 110-81.

Levis, wide belt, T-shirt, wrist band and long hair portray senior David Alamillo's choice of school clothing.

People

"Man, we just gotta get together," the resolve resulting from racial disturbances in April '70, led to a multi-ethnic student-teacher committee to study problems.

This move, along with addition of a black adviser to the principal, indicated the depth of official concern. Some teachers made the effort by taking courses in race studies.

Students did their part through more awareness.

HHS didn't achieve perfect harmony, but people moved to get together.

School year begins with strike, personnel

Strike, election and personnel changes marked school city's year.

Led by Hammond Teachers Assn., teacher bargaining agent, city teachers struck for 9 days Sept. 8-20. They returned to work Sept. 21 on the basis of a tentative agreement reached with a mediator's help. Meantime the school city had asked for and received court orders barring the strike. Hearing resulted in contempt citations against 3 HTA leaders, who later had to serve token jail sentences of an hour or more.

During the strike, administrators tried to keep schools open; but usually met students in morning, took attendance and sent them home. Percentage of striking teachers varied from 66-75% in city.

Negotiations continued after the strike. Misunderstanding about money led to HTA decision to go to court, but compromise resolved the issue. Teachers finally ratified their master agreement in January.

This contract allowed all teachers to make up 6 of the strike days on Saturdays: 2 in January, 2 in March, 2 later. Starting salary rose to $7525 and kept the index, one of the issues for which teachers had struck.

Contract also allowed an extended spring vacation the week after Easter, binding arbitration of grievances, no retaliation for strike, right to negotiate employment conditions. In return, teachers agreed to a no-strike clause for the duration of the contract, until August, 1971.

In an election in February, Hammond Teachers Federation, led by president Mr. Lawrence Lundgren, defeated HTA 586-492 and won the right to represent teachers in contract negotiations for '71-72.

Board of education office saw changes. Mr. Albert Kaye and Mr. Max Mason took school board posts in July. New administrators included Dr. Bernard Hatch, associate superintendent; Dr. Frank Sanders, assistant superintendent for business affairs; and Mr. Richard French, employee relations director.

New faces at HHS included Mrs. Jackie Buss, vocal music; Mr. Jim Troksa, Mr. Richard Naiden, Mr. Eugene Baron, math; Miss Mary Galic, Miss Karla Krager, business; Mr. Marty Stiglitz, Mrs. Emanda Jones, English; Mrs. Shirley Huls, nurse; Mr. Dick Barr, dean. Later Miss Carolyn Mallers began teaching Spanish class in afternoons.

Mr. Cecil Harper reported to HHS in mornings as adviser to the principal about racial matters.

Miss Judy Pataki joined faculty to teach English as a 2nd language 2nd semester, while Mr. Richard Farris from Morton, began teaching biology classes during the afternoon.

U. of Chicago industrial relations center, as contracted by the school board, conducted a survey of faculty, student and community attitudes toward the school system in spring. With results arriving in May, superintendent Dr. Robert Medcalf hoped the survey would lead to overhaul of administration and curriculum in 3 years. Federal funds and U of C split the projects' $16,000 cost.

Signing athletic rosters, principal Dr. F. K. Feuerbach acknowledges eligibility.

Sitting in faculty lounge, art instructor Mr. Ray Ball explains grading standards to student teacher Miss Sally Berner.

spend spare time during summer vacation

Summer found faculty teaching, traveling, studying and working. Fourteen taught regular subjects and drivers ed in summer school. Some of them then packed their bags to travel, as some of their colleagues had done. By summer's end, 5 had gone south, 4 midwest, 4 west, and one east. Mr. Mark Panton and Mr. Herb Wattam took trips to Europe. Joining an art study tour, Miss Georgia Thiel journeyed to Japan. Bahamas beckoned Mr. Tom Zasada. Mrs. Lois Chang and Mrs. Emanda Jones went to Hawaii.

Eight enrolled in grad classes.

Working outdoors, Mr. Jules Papis managed a pool; Mrs. Sally Woodrick life-guarded. Mr. Zasada headed a sports camp; Miss Judy Richter a California scout camp.

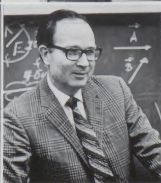

Other jobs attracted Mr. Charles Sizemore to Cities Service refinery as a chemist, Mr. Marty Stiglitz to Inland Steel as a laborer.

Mr. Ray Ball exhibited his works at such art fairs as those in Ann Arbor and Chicago's Old Town. Mr. Lawrence Lundgren attended the American Federation of Teachers national convention in Pittsburgh.

Donating their time, chairman Mr. Steve Kucer, Miss Carol Fisher, Mrs. Anna Urlick, Mr. Frank Gradisher and Mr. Sizemore formed a committee to formulate new discipline rules including morning detentions and in-school suspension.

Taking to the Tech summer school room, Mr. Jay Wood instructs in health and safety.

Teachers continue studies for degrees at

Besides their 8 hours daily at HHS, some teachers entered college classrooms nights and Saturdays.

Work toward a master's degree at Purdue U. Calumet Campus lured Miss Carol Fisher, Mr. Leroy Harwell, Miss Carolyn Mallers, Mr. Jim Troksa, Mr. Robert Urick and Mrs. Sally Woodrick. Mr. Richard Naiden studied at U. of Illinois in Chicago,

Mr. Bernie Krueger at Indiana State, Mr. Tom Schwartz at Pittsburgh. Miss Judy Richter received her MA from Pennsylvania State U.

Miss Catalina Restrepo continued to do work for PhD at Indiana U.

Classes toward additional certification found Mr. Dennis Burdock and Mr. Fred Monberg at PUCC.

On the other hand, PUCC listed some HHSers on its faculty roster: Mr. Frank Carroll as soccer coach; Mr. Wayne Pecher in algebra, trigonometry; Mr. Urick, geometry.

During summer Dr. F. K. Feuerbach taught a graduate course in high school curriculum at IU Northwest. Mr. Ray Ball instructed night courses in crafts and design at IU.

professional organizations, several held offices: Mr. Bob Brock, Agency Workers Assn. president; Dr. Feuerbach, Lake-Porter chapter of Phi Delta Kappa secretary, Indiana Assn. of Junior and Senior High School Principals legislative committee chairman; Mrs. Mary Alice Hannon, secretary of Hammond Council of Teachers of English; Mr. Lawrence Lundgren, president of the Hammond Teachers Federation.

Mr. Monberg wrote an article appearing in the journal of the Indiana Personnel and Guidance Assn.

Others involved in outside activities included Miss Elizabeth Andersen in Hammond Civic Little Theater; Mr. August Schischka, public relations officer for Griffith civil defense unit; and Mr. Leroy Harwell, job counselor for Hammond Neighborhood Youth Corps.

Questionnaire answered by 60 of the school's 69 faculty members showed that 22 had worked in Hammond schools up to 5 years, 12 had 6-10 years, 13 had 11-15 years, 3 had 16-20 years, one had 21-25 years, 6 had 26-30 years, 2 had 31-35 years, and one had 36 years.

Therefore about half the teachers had served city schools more than 10 years. Nine spent their first year in the system at HHS.

To welcome these newcomers, faculty had a picnic in mid-October.

Teachers socialized again with a Christmas dinner at the Log in December and with a retirement banquet at Phil Smidt's in June.

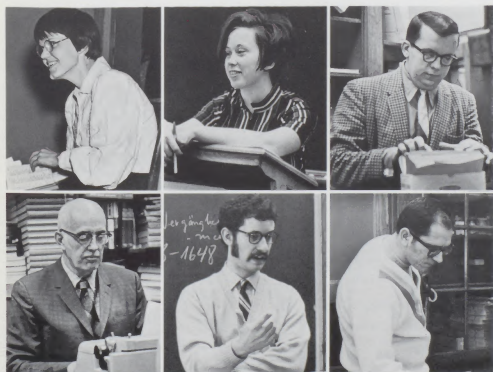

Male teachers of HHS and other schools, and some women teachers' husbands helped Adult Booster Club raise activity funds by challenging the Chicago Cubs baseball team to a basketball contest Dec. 16.

Female fashion scene altered with appearance of instructors in pant outfits starting in December.

Joining married men's ranks were Mr. Tom Zasada in summer and Mr. Frank Gradisher in winter. Mr. Karl Deak became engaged in fall.

On her way to the office, Miss Karla Kraeger typifies new faculty fashion trends.

Making sure that they stay in black ink, bookstore manager Mrs. Irene Kucer looks over the accounts of student activities.

Clerks, custodians, cooks perform school services

Clerking, cooking, cleaning—such tasks formed a fraction of duties performed by adult staff members.

Secretaries welcomed Mrs. June Toren, formerly of Maywood School, to her post in the guidance office. Two others served in the main office, another in the principal's office. Bookstore employed one fulltimer to oversee all accounts, and a part-timer to assist with the athletic financial accounts.

Cooks concocted lunches to feed HHSers 4th and 5th hours in the cafeteria and teachers lunchroom.

Custodians' chores ranged from cleaning and furnace tending to snaring pigeons and shoveling snow.

After a winter storm, head custodian Mr. George Earl desnows the front sidewalk.

305 frosh enroll, plan party, take tests

Orientation, tests, party plans, dues initiated 305 freshmen to HHS.

Orientation for parents Sept. 2 and for students Sept. 3 acquainted them with freshman counselors and school regulations. The agenda also called for distributing of schedules, assigning of lockers and taking of identification pictures.

After registering and paying a fee of $1.25 in December, frosh took National Educational Development Test Feb. 16 in library.

After the scheduling and the rescheduling of the date, freshmen cancelled plans for a class party and hoped for an activity in May.

Class of '74 decided on 25¢ dues.

Sophs order class rings, take 2 tests

Floats, tests, ring orders and class dues occupied sophs' time.

Homecoming float, "Ambush Clark," depicted a wrecked Conestoga wagon, placed 3rd in parade. Sophomore girls ranked 3rd in powder puff football Oct. 14.

Sophs took a mental ability test and Iowa Test of Educational Development in December in auditorium.

Committee's choice of the Josten Jewelry Co. allowed the class of '73 to order from an assortment of traditional college ovals and square styled rings. Sophomores anticipated their class rings in late spring.

Class of '73 paid dues of $0¢ in homerooms from March 8 to 24.

Juniors sell wares to bolster prom fund

Focusing on the junior-senior prom May 14 at Scherwood Club, juniors staged bake and candy sales.

Bake sales at Burger's supermarket Jan. 9, Feb. 13 and March 13 resulted in a $253 profit for the class treasury. Boxes of sparkle sticks and chocolate candy bars, and class dues added to prom fund.

Finishing registration and payments during December, class of '72 took the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test in February.

Juniors and their parents met with counselor Mr. Herb Wattam for college information first semester.

Math teacher Mr. Jim Troksa became class co-sponsor in October.

Ads, index

In a year marked by high unemployment, rising prices and tight money, more teens sought jobs to finance clothing, cars, cosmetics, records, snacks and college saving accounts.

Thanks to the region's industrial nature, though, community suffered fewer ill effects than other areas did.

Therefore region merchants and other businessmen could continue to provide customers with high quality in goods and services.

Over counters, sellers and spenders got together.

Comay's Jewelers

in Hammond floral shops, jewelry stores

Speaking with flowers, seniors Rob Barrell, Linda Wasyłowsky concentrate on carnations.

Florists and jewelers enhanced gracious living in the Calumet.

Under the new management of Mr. Richard Sroczyński, Hansen Brothers Florist remained a landmark of floral beauty in downtown Hammond at 5230 Hohman Ave. This shop featured arrangements, bouquets, corsages, potted plants and giftware for all occasions.

Solan's Greenhouse at 6804 Columbia Ave. grew seasonal specialty plants and did floral work.

Also a florist, Open House at 6604 Jackson Ave., catered to HHS with flowers for special events.

Diamonds, china, jewelry, records tempted Comay's Jewelry patrons in Woodmar Shopping Center.

Woodmar Jeweler & Gift Shop at 7012 Indianapolis Blvd. offered watch repair, giftware and cards.

Potted chrysanthemum sidetracks Lenora Jerkins on her stroll through Hansen's.

All set for a flowerful Easter, Vernora Johnson heads home with Hansen's hydrangeas.

Insurance, realty, banks support region

Local insurance agencies, realtors and banks served their community.

Celebrating its 40th anniversary, Hammond Insurance Agency in its modern office building at 608 165th St. provided customers with insurance for car, home and life.

Established since 1901, Hammond National Co. Inc., located at 5248 Hohman Ave., handled home, business and industrial insurance.

Independent agency, Backe Insurance, 738 173rd St., sold homeowners and mortgage insurance along with coverage of auto, fire, life.

Kaye & Roach Realtors at 7027 Calumet Ave., served the Region by following their motto to "buy, sell or trade any place in the nation."

With branches in Hammond, Gary, Munster, Griffith, Schererville, Calumet National Bank located its main office at 5231 Hohman Ave.

Hoosier State Bank 479 State St., also served patrons at 3 other branches in Hammond and one each in Schererville, Gary and Hobart.

Mercantile National Bank, headquartered at 5243 Hohman Ave., served its customers at branches in Hammond, Munster, Griffith.

Community gets boost at Burger's

All Burger's grocery stores—on Columbia Ave. in Hammond; Ridge Rd., 45th St. in Munster—helped region economic health through low prices and employment.

Burger's also served by permitting bake and cookie sales. Munster Women's Club's anti-pollution project used Burger's as a collection base for cans that were to be recycled.

Thanks to the cooperation of Burger's supermarket, juniors Peggy Maurer and Kathy Chamberlain sell baked goods to earn prom money.

Saving steps for Vernon Smith, co-worker Jeff Zemaitis abets Burger's convenience.

Demand for another Burger's special keeps employee Vernon Smith stocking and stamping.

Diversity, quality, quantity keynote grocery service

Variety, quality and quantity key-noted grocery stores' service.

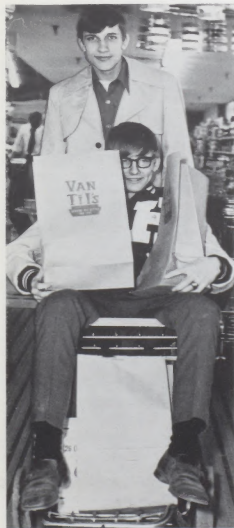

Barton's Food Center, 5238 Calumet Ave., provided a 24-hour service to the community, as well as a complete drugstore next door.

Delock's Produce added a 4th market on Southeastern Ave. Stores on Chicago Ave., Hohman Ave., and 165th St. shelved varied foods.

Produce department at Van Til's Super Mart on Indianapolis Blvd. offered shoppers a year-round supply of fresh vegetables and fruit.

Organizing oranges, stocker James Taylor assures Florida fresh flavor at Delock's.

Barton's Food Center supplies Donielle Kuipers and Linda Doolittle's fodder for mischief.

Figuring on a Friday night get-together, Mike Drutis wheels out Charlie Harville along with snacks provided by Van Til's.

Hungry folks flock to region restaurants

Local restaurants appeased the appetites of Wildcats during lunch.

Burger King locations in Calumet City, Munster, Highland featured the famous whopper and trimmings.

While browsing in Calumet Shopping Center, shoppers often stopped at Anton's for sandwich, coke.

Schoop's Hamburgers at 5452 Calumet Ave. and 215 Ridge Rd., Munster, filled meat-hungry Cats.

AGW Drive-O-Matic, 7206 Calumet Ave., offered a place to go for root beer, fries after games, dates.

Traditional gathering spot for hamburgers, shakes lured patrons to Maid Rite, 5815 Calumet Ave.

Located at 3613 Ridge Rd., Lansing, Barton's Pizzeria furnished HHSers with such post-game snacks as handmade neopolitan pizzas, Italian beef and sausage sandwiches.

Barton's Pizzeria

Reveling in Barton's international flair, Jay Potesta and Pam Gard savor pizza flavor.

Maid Rite

Local merchants keep Hammond High

After selecting the latest fashions in town, Cats could count on quality care from area cleaners.

Einhorn's in Woodmar Shopping Center kept style-conscious females up to date in its sportswear.

Guys could stay handsomely outfitted through Joe Hirsch's Woodmar and 5244 Hohman Ave. stores.

Minas department stores at 460 State St. and in River Oaks sold not only clothing but also accessories and furnishings for homes.

At 603 169th St. Riddle's Cleaners took careful care of the clothing left for on-site servicing.

Likewise, One-Hour Martinizing at 6413 Columbia Ave. gave quality care to cleaning in its store.

Boys entrusted cage uniforms to Riddle's, grid outfits to One-Hour.

High school is a waste of time

... unless you find a job that turns you on and makes good use of your education. Inland Steel wants only people who want to use everything they've learned in high school--and strongly desire to grow personally and in their chosen field.

Inland's future growth depends on the creativity and productivity of its people. If you want a really challenging opportunity to contribute--with the rewards and responsibilities that go with it--Inland wants to talk to you.

We need action-seeking graduates for opportunities in clerical . . . production . . . technical . . . and craft apprenticeship areas.

Think it over. If you have high aspirations and a good high school record, take time to find out about a career with us.

Fans pursue interests in sport, hobby

Putting work and worries aside, Cats turned to hobbies and sports.

With commercial aquarium service, Terry's Aquarium, 733 173rd St., offered selections of fish, aquariums, food and pet supplies.

For skiers, Pines Ski Lodge in Valparaiso furnished closest skiing facilities. For $5 Pines supplied tow ticket, skis, poles and boots.

Adult Boosters backed athletes through fall and winter banquets.

Adult Booster Club

In Adult Booster-sponsored Cubs vs. faculty game, Mr. Leroy Harwell (middle) opposes Ron Santo (10) and Ted Savage (3) Dec. 16.

Action pix, printing aid publications

DeLaney at 113 Sibley Blvd. and Bodie at 149 State St. helped HHS publications attain national honors through printing and photography.

New offset press and 2nd linotype machine facilitated DeLaney's printing of bi-weekly Herald's 15 editions and the Dunes' 176 pages.

Starting with senior portraits in summer and continuing with informals, groups in school year, Bodie snapped thousands of photos.

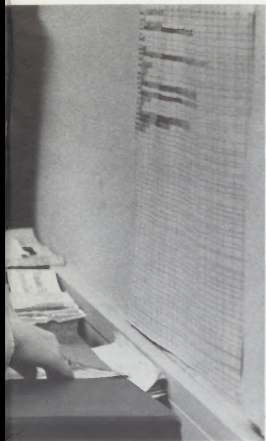

Having called Bodie, Dunes photo editor Sue Weaver shifts attention to Herald inch chart.

Organizing the advertising section of the 1971 Dunes, business manager Sandy Bieber and assistant Malcolm Springs confer over the pictures, schedules and layout for each spread.

Focusing in on a group picture for the 1971 Dunes, Bodie photographer Don Zalenski adjusts camera's shutter speed and f-stop.

Conflict, resolution confound world year

Conflict, resolutions and miscellanea confronted man in '70-71.

Vietnamization named President Richard Nixon's plan to wind down the war. South Vietnam's invasion of Laos then dimmed peace hopes.

Other international events included death of France's Charles De-Gaulle, truce in the mid-east.

In the US, November attention turned to elections. Democrats made gains despite defeat of some liberal candidates against whom Nixon and Vice President Spiro Agnew had waged personal campaigns.

Other national developments saw controversy over legalized abortions, faltering economy, Apollo landing on the moon, court martial for the My Lai massacre, Army spying on civilians, cabinet changes.

Militancy emerged in the form of hard hats vs. students in New York City; and radical bombings in Rochester, NY, and of the Senate.

Ecology increased as a major issue involving mercury in fish, low phosphate detergents, anti-noise laws and unleaded gasoline.

Weather took its toll with more than 30,000 dead from a Pakistan typhoon and tidal wave, and more than 50 dead from a morning earthquake in Los Angeles in February.

Locally, citizens nominated mayoral candidates, opened Turner Park housing project, coped with decreased bus service, organized Calumet Community Congress, went to shows at Chicago's new McCormick Place.

Sports fans witnessed the victory of Baltimore in the world series, boxing triumph of Joe Frazier over Muhammed Ali and state basketball crown of EC Washington.

Movie goers saw "Z," "Five Easy Pieces," "Love Story," "Woodstock," "M-A-S-H," "Joe," "Airport" and "Catch-22." TV preferences ran to Andy Williams, Flip Wilson, "Laugh In," "Marcus Welby," "Young Lawyers," "Room 222," "Mod Squad" and movies.

Music fans brought albums "Jesus Christ Superstar" and "Woodstock." Singles and albums by Jackson 5, Temptations, Carpenters, Dionne Warwick, individual Beatles, Fifth Dimension, James Taylor, Joni Mitchell had success during the year.

Action in 10 sports demanded teamwork from each individual such as linksters Bob Eckstein, Bob Jamriska, Tom Murray at Lake Hills course.

Caught up in an activity whirl, Bill Henning, Pat Scott and Mike Burrows hitch on the pep band truck as Jeff Morrow, Dave Maurer and Jeff Riddle warm up for homecoming parade.

Academic realm, encompassing every Wildcat, finds senior Connie Fultz tapping through drill exercises in beginning typing class.

People, personified by junior Cindi Gill in the auditorium, played a prominent part in making '71 a year to get together.

Dunes staff gets 1971 yearbook together

Late start, Miss Judy Richter's bad health, no head type, bake sale pictures and no heat in room 18 hampered 1971 yearbook staffers.

Eight staffers spent 2 weeks at Ball State U. with everyone's favorite counselor, ping-pong, exit signs, transgression of the rules.

Auditorium session, "The Year 2035," with Patti's introductions, Gail's pants and Dennis' sales pitch gave Miss Richter ulcers.

Someone needed to tell the Herald to get rid of the ants on the cookies in the miscellaneous drawer, Cindy and Sue not to rip up copy, Patti to "get rid of the gum and pay up," Mary to put Mr. Misties in the mouth, Nicki and Malcolm to watch for ace of spades.

Decorations from Christmas remained in room 18 through April. The "foxy picture lady" watched over us from the bulletin board.

Editor Mary Leas wishes to thank Karen Mauder, Dennis Hensley, Gail McCullough, Tracy Plowman, Martha Mamula, Jojo Lippman, Meg Storey, Karen Rubick for help.

Special thanks go to Nicki Solan for layouts and red arrows, Colleen Conley for cover design and layouts, Patti Hall and Diane Walker for their copy and after school delivery service, Sue Weaver for patience with picture scheduling and willingness to help anywhere, Cindy Story for help on underclass pictures and everything else, Malcolm Springs and Sandy Bieber for salesmanship, Linda Wood for chauffeuring, Harry and Don from Bodie for pictures, Miss R's roommate for checking, Miss Charlene Browning for subbing.

Deep appreciation goes from the editor to Miss Richter for all her time, tolerance, and inspiration.

DeLaney of Hammond printed 800 books on 80 lb. matte paper with headlines in 36 pt. Caledonia; subheads, opening section, division pages in 18 pt. Metro light; body copy in 10/12 Metro; cutlines in 8/9 Metro; senior activities and index in 6/6 Excelsior. S. K. Smith Co. made covers, Indiana School Pictures took the underclass photos.
